

POLICY TITLE: ANTI-BULLYING POLICY

DEVELOPED/REVIEWED BY

Senior Leadership Team

REVIEW SUMMARY

“Who is the person who desires life and loves days that they may see the good? Guard your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit. Depart from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it.” (Psalm 34: 12 – 14)

“You shall not go up and down as a talebearer among your people.” (Leviticus 19: 16)

“You shall not wrong one another.” (Leviticus 25: 17)

This policy identifies the interconnectedness of the characteristics of quality Jewish learning and teaching. It is intended to value, respect, and promote the self-esteem and dignity of each student, regardless of their cultural or linguistic background. The School will actively promote anti-bullying messages, alerting students and staff of the need to be vigilant.

It is essential that we create and maintain a respectful, safe and supportive learning environment that promotes student wellbeing, personal growth and positive self-esteem amongst our diverse range of learners.

The prevention of and responses to incidents of bullying, inappropriate use of technology and disrespectful behaviour are more readily achieved in a caring and supportive environment that promotes positive relationships and reflects Jewish values. Bullying, cyber-bullying, harassment, aggression, and violence disregard core values of our faith, including inclusivity, egalitarianism and social justice. Importantly, such actions can adversely affect the wellbeing of our students and are therefore unacceptable.

However, unresolved mutual conflict sometimes develops into a bullying situation, with one person becoming targeted repeatedly for 'retaliation' in a one-sided way. • Social rejection or dislike: Unless the social rejection is directed towards someone specifically and involves deliberate and repeated attempts to cause distress, exclude or create dislike by others, it is not bullying. • Single-episode acts: Single episodes of nastiness or physical aggression are not the same as bullying. PROCEDURES

All members of the King David School community must be aware of the possibility of bullying and take action to prevent bullying if it is reasonably foreseeable.

Responsibilities: The School

The School's approach to student wellbeing is underpinned by the restorative practice approach, which has at its core an understanding that in respecting ourselves, we learn to respect others. This understanding encourages all members of our community to take responsibility for their actions. Rather than adopting a punitive approach to student wrongdoing, an emphasis is placed on working with the student so that they can better understand the impact of their behaviour.

The procedures for responding to incidents of bullying will be conducted in line with the School's Positive Behaviours Policy and the School reserves the right to institute behavioural consequences listed in the Policy.
